

Katy Lai

Senior Associate

Practice Area:

Litigation & Disputes Resolution, Regulatory Enforcement

Katy was admitted to practise as a solicitor in Hong Kong in 2008. She joined the firm in 2006.

Katy focuses on commercial litigation. She advises listed companies, professional service firms, PRC and overseas enterprises on a wide range of high-stakes contractual disputes. She has experience in handling urgent asset freezing injunctions and receiverships, interim relief in aid of foreign proceedings, winding-up petitions, arbitration cases and cross-border matters. She advises liquidators in assistance of their investigation and asset recovery work. She also advises banks on various matters such as debt collection, account operation and third party disclosure orders. She has acted for listed companies and private clients in regulatory investigations, search and seizure, and complex enforcement proceedings involving the Securities and Futures Commission, the Commercial Crime Bureau and the Independent Commission Against Corruption.

Legal Specialisations:

Civil Litigation, Regulatory Enforcement

Professional Qualifications:

- Solicitor of the High Court of Hong Kong

Education:

- University of Hong Kong (LL.B.)
- University of Hong Kong (PCLL)

Language:

English, Cantonese and Mandarin