Our experienced Immigration team offers extensive services in immigration law and workforce mobility.

Our lawyers understand how strenuous team moves can be and we strive to offer cost-effective and efficient ways to ensure businesses are run as smoothly as possible. Our services cover all aspects of inbound immigration matters including application for work visa, dependant's visa, extension of stay, renewal of visas, application for eligibility for permanent resident status etc. With a diverse portfolio of clientele, ranging from high-profile individuals to multi-national companies, our team is well-equipped in handling requisitions from the Immigration Department in many scenarios. We provide practical and commercial solutions to our clients.

On outbound immigration, we work alongside with overseas law firms through INTERLAW, which is a close network of sizeable well-established law firms from nearly 80 jurisdictions and of which we are one of the founding members. We also work in collaboration with reliable and reputable international immigration consultants in assisting our clients to obtain permanent resident status and passports of selected countries. With the support from our network of legal and immigration professionals, we offer our clients a gateway to a place for new business ventures and lifestyle opportunities.

We also assist clients on investigation and prosecution by the enforcement unit of the Immigration Department. The practice in this area includes breach of conditions of stay, suspected fraudulent applications, refusal to land and deportation. We help our clients walk through every step of the way making it as less stressful as possible.

Our Immigration team will work with you closely to ensure your needs are met.
