

Agnes Wong

Consultant

Practice Area:

Intellectual Property

Agnes joined the Firm in 2021, after closing her own firm of 17 years.

While Agnes is well-versed in many areas of law, her practice primarily focuses on Intellectual Property, Information Technology, Media, Communications, Entertainment and Sports. Agnes successfully represents multi-national clients, domain name registries, start-ups, digital collectibles trading companies, TV programmes and movies streaming companies, sports agencies, celebrities, charities, etc. in all kinds and phases of intellectual property rights protection, enforcement and exploitation.

Legal Specialisations:

Intellectual Property, Information Technology, Media, Communications, Entertainment and Sports

Professional Qualifications:

- Solicitor of the High Court of Hong Kong - 1994
- Civil Celebrant of Marriages - 2008

Education:

- St. Hugh's College, Oxford University (M.A. (Oxon))
- Hong Kong University (PCLL)

Scholarship:

- Ho, Leung, Ho & Lee Scholarship (set up by the founding members of Hang Seng Bank) to read Jurisprudence at St. Hugh's, Oxford

Language:

English, Cantonese, Mandarin and Japanese

Other Involvement:

- Member of Hong Kong Golf Club
- Member of Hong Kong Jockey Club

Seminars / Talks:

- Spoke about "Internet Security and Privacy" at a seminar held by the HK Productivity Council