

Immigration

Our experienced Immigration team in Hong Kong supports both local and multinational clients, including high-profile individuals, listed companies and global enterprises, in a wide range of immigration, visa, employment and labor matters. Lawyers from our immigration practice are able to advise clients on every aspect of inbound immigration visa policies and procedures, facilitating a seamless application process for various types of residential visas in Hong Kong and helping our clients navigate the complexities and nuances in such processes.

Company formation is often a vital prerequisite for obtaining entrepreneur visas in Hong Kong. Our team offers company formation services, working with our company secretarial department and providing tax advisory services along with all related legal support, to aid our clients in establishing companies or branches in Hong Kong. Our Interlaw network helps us provide clients with access to immediate advice and support through member firms in nearly 80 jurisdictions worldwide. Our team is committed to providing one-stop services to help our clients achieve their goals.

All of our immigration services are tailor-made for clients, ensuring the necessary flexibility to support all sorts of visa applications.
